

“For the Aunties and Uncles ” will present student abstractions. The body of work is created with the guidance of various established Black Indigenous People of Color (BIPOC) artist, and their individual process of making. Students develop their own art practice within the field of fine art abstraction.

All donations contribute to student engagement and community partners involved in Student Exhibition-
“For Aunties and Uncles”